3 UNDERSTANDING THE PHLEBOTOMY FEE

When you book a test with us, you might notice an additional charge referred to as the Phlebotomy Fee or Blood Draw Fee. Here's what you need to know:

- What is Phlebotomy?
 - Phlebotomy is the process of drawing blood from a patient for diagnostic or therapeutic purposes. It's a critical step in many medical tests, ensuring that samples are collected safely and accurately.
- Fee Structure:
 - Single Test: For a single test, there is a flat fee of £10. This covers the cost of the blood draw procedure, including the use of sterile equipment, the expertise of our phlebotomist, and ensuring the sample is correctly handled.
 - Panel Test: If you're having a panel test (where multiple tests are conducted from one blood sample), the fee increases to £15. This reflects the additional complexity and time involved in handling multiple test requirements from a single draw.
- Exceptions:
 - For certain panel tests, the phlebotomy fee might be waived. This information will be clearly indicated under the "Read More" section of each test description on our website. Always check this section before booking to see if this fee applies to your chosen test.
- Why the Fee?
 - This fee helps us maintain high standards of hygiene, safety, and accuracy in blood collection. It also covers the cost of training our phlebotomists to ensure they are skilled in making the process as comfortable and efficient as possible for you.
- How to Check:
 - When selecting your test, click on the "Read More" section for details on whether the phlebotomy fee is included or waived for that specific test.

Understanding these fees upfront can help you plan your expenses better. If you have any questions about the phlebotomy fee or any other aspect of your test, our customer service team is always ready to assist you.

This explanation should provide clarity on what the phlebotomy fee entails, why it exists, and how it applies to different types of tests, helping patients make informed decisions about their medical expenses.

4 SAMPLE COLLECTION PREPARATION INSTRUCTIONS

4.1 Blood Collection

We want to ensure your experience at our clinic is as comfortable and efficient as possible. Here are a few tips to prepare for your blood draw:

4.1.1 Before Your Appointment

- Check for Fasting Requirements: Some tests require you to fast (not eat or drink anything but water) for a specific period before the blood draw. Your doctor or the clinic should have informed you if this is necessary.
- Stay Hydrated: Drink plenty of water in the days leading up to your appointment and on the day of. Being well-hydrated makes your veins easier to find and access.
- Wear Comfortable Clothing: Choose loose-fitting clothing with sleeves that can be easily rolled up above the elbow. Inform us of any Concerns or Medical Conditions: Let the staff know if you have a history of fainting, difficulty with blood draws, or any bleeding disorders. If you're taking any medications, particularly blood thinners, it's important to inform the phlebotomist (the person taking your blood).

4.1.2 During Your Appointment

- Relax: Anxiety can make your veins constrict, so try to stay calm. Deep breathing or listening to music can help.
- Communicate: If you're feeling uncomfortable or experiencing any pain, let the phlebotomist know.
- Don't be Afraid to Ask Questions: Feel free to ask about the procedure, aftercare, or anything else you're unsure about.

4.1.3 After Your Appointment

- Apply Pressure: Keep the bandage on for at least a few hours to prevent bleeding.
- Avoid Strenuous Activity: Take it easy for the rest of the day to allow the puncture site to heal.
- Watch for Complications: If you notice excessive bleeding, bruising, or signs of infection at the puncture site, contact the clinic.

4.1.4 Additional Tips

- Bring something to distract you: A book, magazine, or your phone can help take your mind off the procedure.
- Don't skip meals (unless instructed to fast): Eating a light meal beforehand can help prevent lightheadedness.
- Avoid caffeine and alcohol: These can dehydrate you and make it more difficult to find a vein.

4.2 Random Urine Collection

We understand that providing a urine sample may feel a bit awkward, but rest assured, it's a common and simple procedure. Here are a few tips to prepare and ensure a smooth experience:

4.2.1 Before Your Appointment:

- No special preparation is usually needed: You can eat and drink as usual before your appointment.
- Stay hydrated: Drinking plenty of water will help you produce an adequate sample.
- Consider timing: If possible, schedule your appointment for earlier in the day as your first morning urine tends to be more concentrated and provides better results.
- Inform us of any concerns: If you have any difficulty urinating or are menstruating, let our staff know beforehand.

4.2.2 At the Clinic:

- We'll provide a sterile container: You'll be given a clean, sterile container for collection. Hygiene first: Before collecting the sample, wash your hands thoroughly and clean your genital area with the provided wipes to avoid contamination. Mid-stream collection: Start urinating into the toilet, then pause and collect a small amount (about 30-60ml) of urine mid-stream into the container. Finish urinating into the toilet.
- Secure the lid tightly: Ensure the container's lid is closed properly to prevent leakage.
- Hand it to the staff: Return the sealed container to our staff promptly.

4.2.3 Additional Tips:

- Don't be embarrassed: Our staff is experienced and understands this is a routine procedure.
- Feel free to ask questions: If you have any questions or concerns, please don't hesitate to ask.

4.2.4 Important:

- Avoid contamination: Try not to touch the inside of the container or the lid.
- If you can't provide a sample right away: Let the staff know so they can assist you.
- Deliver the sample promptly: For the most accurate results, it's best to deliver the sample to the lab within two hours of collection. If this isn't possible, store it in a refrigerator until you can bring it in.

We hope this information helps you feel more comfortable and prepared for your urine collection. If you have any other questions, please feel free to contact us.

4.3 Stool Collection

We understand that handling stool samples can be a bit delicate, so we've compiled some instructions to ensure the safe and successful transport of your sample:

4.3.1 Before Leaving Home

- Check the Collection Container: Make sure the container provided by our lab is clean, sealed, and hasn't been damaged.
- Label Clearly: Attach the provided label with your name, date of birth, and the date and time of collection to the container.
- Seal Tightly: Double-check that the container is tightly closed to prevent any leaks or spills.
- Place in a Secure Bag: Put the sealed container in a leak-proof plastic bag for additional protection during transport.
- Keep it Cool: If possible, place the bagged container in a cooler bag with an ice pack to keep the sample cool. This isn't always necessary, but it's a good precaution, especially if it's a warm day or you have a long journey.

4.3.2 Transporting the Sample:

- Handle with Care: Carry the sample upright and avoid shaking or jostling it too much.
- Time is Important: Bring the sample to the clinic as soon as possible after collection. Ideally, within two hours. If there's a significant delay, refrigerate the sample until you can deliver it.

4.3.3 At the Clinic:

- Hand it to the Receptionist: Upon arrival, give the bagged and labeled container to the receptionist or designated staff member.

- Answer any Questions: Be prepared to answer any questions about the collection process or your recent health.

4.3.4 Additional Tips:

- Wash your hands thoroughly: After handling the sample and container, wash your hands with soap and water.
- Don't be embarrassed: Our staff is trained to handle stool samples discreetly and professionally.
- If you have any questions: Feel free to contact us before your appointment if you have any uncertainties or concerns.
